- 5. Provision of the Global OTC System.
 - 5.1. ATS shall provide Broker-Dealer with the ability, through the Global OTC System, to review, submit and execute orders on the Global OTC System. Such Global OTC System orders will be matched with other orders, forwarded to market makers in OTC securities or to other automated trading system interfaces ("Routing Services"). Such other orders will be matched with orders and/or executed on other market centers.

- 6. Best Execution. Broker-Dealer understands, acknowledges and agrees that the Global OTC System is a passive order-routing system and accepts only orders directed to ATS. Broker-Dealer further understands, acknowledges and agrees that ATS will not make any independent best execution determination, as that term is customarily applied and as those duties are customarily recognized under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (“Exchange Act”) and the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended and/or any other federal and state law, rule or regulation that govern such duty. Broker-Dealer understands, acknowledges and agrees that it may not rely upon ATS for such Broker-Dealer’s duty of best execution with respect to orders placed on ATS.
- 7. Compliance with ATS’s Requirements. Broker-Dealer may allow certain entities that are customers of Broker-Dealer (each, an “Authorized Party” and collectively “Authorized Parties”) to utilize the Global OTC System through Broker-Dealer’s terminals, software applications, and/or user identification number in accordance with the terms hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, ATS shall retain the right to revoke this section 7 at any time and in ATS’s sole discretion. Broker-Dealer hereby agrees to be bound by the provisions of the Agreement, including but not limited to section 11 hereunder, with respect to orders placed in and transactions effected through the Global OTC System by Authorized Parties as if said activity was that of Broker-Dealer.
- 8. Changes in the Global OTC System and Related Technology. Broker-Dealer acknowledges and agrees that nothing in this Agreement constitutes an undertaking by ATS to provide the Global OTC System in the present form or under the current specifications, requirements, with the current software interfaces, or to continue to use existing communications facilities. ATS in its sole and absolute discretion, or at the discretion of a third party service provider, including but not limited to Nasdaq, regulatory bodies, or ATS’s software or communications providers, may from time to time make additions to, deletions from, or modifications to, the Global OTC System and to the communications facilities that ATS may utilize. ATS shall make reasonable efforts to notify Broker-Dealer of material changes to the Global OTC System or to such communications facilities at least thirty (30) days prior to any such change, unless a malfunction or a force majeure event necessitates modifications on an accelerated basis or an emergency precludes such advance notice or a shorter time period is required pursuant to an order of a court, arbitrator or a regulatory agency. Receipt or use of the Global OTC System, and/or Routing Services after any change shall constitute Broker-Dealer’s acceptance of the Global OTC System and/or Routing Services as changed.
- 9. Payment for the Global OTC System. Broker-Dealer will pay ATS for use of the Global OTC System , and its Routing Services per the charges set forth in Schedule B attached hereto and incorporated herein, as applicable. Broker-Dealer may arrange for third party billing, however, Broker-Dealer shall be fully responsible for all payments due under this Agreement regardless of designation of a third party payor. Broker-Dealer agrees to pay all third party charges, such as sales taxes, which are Broker-Dealer’s legal responsibility to pay.

- 10. Broker-Dealer to Monitor Personnel. Broker-Dealer acknowledges its responsibility to monitor its employees or agents (collectively “Personnel”) to ensure that, in connection with its use of the Global OTC System, all Personnel abide by and fully comply with all applicable provisions of the Applicable Requirements and with all other federal and state laws, including the rules and regulations of any self-regulatory organizations of which Broker-Dealer or its Personnel are members, and Broker-Dealer shall be solely responsible for such supervision and for any violation thereof by Personnel. Broker-Dealer also acknowledges and agrees that all instructions issued by it or by any of the Personnel pursuant to this Agreement, including instructions or orders entered through the Global OTC System, may be relied upon by ATS as being duly authorized, valid and binding, without any duty or obligation of ATS to investigate the accuracy or correctness of the instructions, or the authenticity or authority thereby exercised.
- 11. Settlement Obligations. Broker-Dealer agrees that it is Broker-Dealer’s absolute, unconditional and unassignable obligation, in connection with: (i) each trade executed through any terminal linked to the Global OTC System used by Broker-Dealer or an Authorized Party or any user identification number allocated or assigned to Broker-Dealer, and (ii) any orders placed with ATS’s help desk by Broker-Dealer’s Personnel or an Authorized Party’s employees, to make and ensure timely delivery of the subject securities and/or other distributions as well as any required remittance of interest, dividend payments and/or other distributions. Broker-Dealer shall honor this settlement obligation whether or not: (a) such executed trade was made as a principal, or for a third party account as a broker, agent, trustee or other representative; (b) any such third party account honors its obligations to deliver in a timely manner securities and/or funds, or to remit in a timely manner interest, dividends, or other distributions to Broker-Dealer; (c) said trade was executed by an employee or an Authorized Party or was authorized by Broker-Dealer; and (d) Broker-Dealer wishes to challenge or raise defenses of any nature whatsoever to such transaction. Without limiting the foregoing obligation, in the event that Broker-Dealer does not receive timely delivery of securities and/or funds from a third party account, or in the event that Broker-Dealer becomes aware that a third party for whom Broker-Dealer is acting becomes unwilling or unable to settle any transaction, Broker-Dealer shall provide ATS immediate notice thereof, including without limitation, the name and address of the third party. In addition, it is expressly understood and agreed that each other party on the contra side of the transaction shall be and hereby is deemed to be a third party beneficiary of Broker-Dealer’s obligations as described herein. If Broker-Dealer breaches its obligations herein, or otherwise challenges any executed trade effected through the Global OTC System, ATS, as applicable, may, in its sole discretion, promptly disclose to the party on the contra side of the transaction, the name of Broker-Dealer, as well as such supporting documentation pertaining to the transaction as is available to ATS. ATS, as applicable, in their sole discretion, may also inform other customers of such default or challenge, and of the identity of the third party involved in the default. ATS shall not have liability to Broker-Dealer in connection with such notification.
- 12. Buy-Ins, Cancellations and Liquidations of Orders. ATS, as applicable, is authorized in the event that Broker-Dealer becomes insolvent or is the subject of a proceeding commenced under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, or whenever ATS, in its sole discretion (which discretion shall not be exercised unreasonably), deems it necessary for its protection, without notice to Broker-Dealer, to limit Broker-Dealer’s activity or cancel or liquidate any or all outstanding transactions entered, routed or submitted through the Global OTC System by Broker-Dealer or the Personnel. Broker-Dealer acknowledges that in the event any good delivery is refused, ATS may be compelled to cancel or liquidate the transactions and Broker-Dealer will be liable to ATS and any of its affiliates for any loss, expense or cost associated therewith, and agrees to promptly reimburse ATS and any of its affiliates for any such loss, expense or costs resulting from such buy-ins, cancellations or liquidations of orders.

- 13. Short Sale Transactions. Broker-Dealer represents that, in giving or transmitting an order to sell any security through the Global OTC System, Broker-Dealer or its customer owns the security and agrees to deliver it to ATS or its settlement agent by the applicable settlement date. Where Broker-Dealer or its customer does not own the security, Broker-Dealer represents and warrants that for each transaction that would constitute a short sale Broker-Dealer shall transact such sale in accordance with SEC Reg SHO and or any applicable regulations governing short sale transactions as may be amended from time to time. Unless a transaction is exempt from short sale restrictions, Broker-Dealer agrees that neither it nor any other party acting on its behalf will effect a short sale or enter an order that if executed would constitute a short sale without entering into the Global OTC System the designated electronic indicator that such sale is or would be a short sale and a locate has been performed. If Broker-Dealer is not a member of FINRA, Broker-Dealer and all parties acting on its behalf shall provide all appropriate assistance to ATS in order for ATS to comply with all applicable rules and regulations to locate securities to be delivered to settle and clear any such short sale.
- 14. Finality and Transmittal of Reports, Statements and Notices. Confirmations of orders and statements of Broker-Dealer's account(s) will be conclusive if Broker-Dealer does not object thereto in writing within five (5) and ten (10) business days, respectively, after transmittal to Broker-Dealer by mail or otherwise. Notice or other communications, including confirmations and account statements, delivered, mailed or transmitted to Broker-Dealer at the address, telephone number or e-mail address (in the case of electronic notice) specified by Broker-Dealer will, until ATS has received notice in writing of a different address, telephone number or e-mail address, be deemed to have been personally delivered to and received by Broker-Dealer, and Broker-Dealer agrees to waive all claims resulting from any failure to receive such communications.
- 15. Integrity of Service. Broker-Dealer agrees not to format, display, or alter the information or data received through and from the Global OTC System in violation of Applicable Requirements or ATS's specifications and requirements. - 16. Grant of License. During the term of this Agreement, Broker-Dealer is granted a personal, nonexclusive, non-transferable license to access and use the Global OTC System to the extent necessary for the purposes for which it was designed, specifically, to receive ATS's electronic limit order book and to communicate the orders of the Broker-Dealer for execution by ATS through the Global OTC System.
- 16.1. Broker-Dealer may not sell, lease, furnish, or otherwise permit or provide access to the Global OTC System to any other entity or to any individual that is not Broker-Dealer's Personnel or Authorized Party. Broker-Dealer shall not furnish or otherwise permit or provide access to the Global OTC System from any place other than its primary place of business, its Authorized Parties primary place of business, or other ATS authorized locations. Broker-Dealer shall comply with all reasonable security specifications or requirements of ATS's in order to prevent the Global OTC System from being improperly used or accessed or the information and data from being improperly taken from any of Broker-Dealer's places of business.
- 16.2. Broker-Dealer may not convey, retransmit, republish or rebroadcast any information that it receives or obtains through the Global OTC System without the prior written consent of ATS.

Broker-Dealer, on behalf of itself and Personnel, agrees to keep such information confidential, and to utilize this information solely for its own business activities. Broker-Dealer further agrees to take or cause to be taken all reasonably necessary precautions to maintain the secrecy and confidentiality of such proprietary information, and shall neither disclose the same to any customers of the Broker-Dealer nor to any other person or entity.
